Certified Marketing Professional (CPM) and digital experience leader with 15+ years translating marketing strategy into scalable web and digital capability across multi-brand, multi-market environments. Proven owner of web and digital roadmaps spanning acquisition, engagement, conversion and retention, with hands-on delivery of CMS modernisation, martech integration and AI-enabled experiences. Leads cross-functional teams and partners across marketing, sales, IT and data to turn fragmented digital estates into coherent, governed, high-performing platforms that deliver measurable business outcomes.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Web & digital roadmap ownership across multiple brands and business units
- Translating marketing strategy into scalable, measurable digital capability
- CMS migration & modernisation, including headless (Sitecore to Storyblok)
- Martech integration, analytics and AI-enabled customer experience
- Web performance, CRO, KPI management and data-driven optimisation
- Digital governance, operational readiness, risk and compliance
- Agile delivery and cross-functional team leadership
- Executive stakeholder management, communication and influence

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Creative & Digital Experience Director

AVJennings · Sydney · April 2018 – September 2025

Web & digital roadmap ownership

- Owned and prioritised the digital and web roadmap across the corporate site and multiple project brand sites, balancing transformation initiatives with business-as-usual delivery.
- Translated marketing strategy into scalable digital capability across acquisition, consideration, conversion and post-purchase journeys.
- Led the redesign and migration from a legacy Sitecore CMS to a modern headless architecture (Storyblok), improving performance, editorial autonomy and speed to market.
- Introduced martech integration, behavioural analytics and AI-assisted content workflows to lift marketing performance and customer experience.

Performance, governance & team leadership

- Built and led a multidisciplinary team across UX, design, content and digital marketing, embedding agile ways of working and continuous improvement.
- Drove data-driven optimisation using GA4, heatmaps and A/B testing, managing KPIs across the full funnel.
- Established digital governance covering content standards, accessibility (WCAG), SEO and brand consistency across brands and stakeholder groups.
- Partnered with marketing, sales, IT and external development partners to align digital investment with commercial priorities.

Chief Digital Officer & Board Member (Limited Capacity)
